Telling our Stories thru BookMaking and Gelli Printing

Supply List

Gelli Plate 8x10 and/or 6x6

Brayer

Acrylic paints of your choice and colors (See list below of paints Robyn likes)

Baby wipes

Stamps

Stencils

Scissors

Ruler

Small self-healing cutting mat

X-acto knife

Hole punch

Extra papers, old ephemera vintage book pages, old Gelli off prints, fabric scraps

Preferred Gelli printing papers, I suggest light weight drawing paper, bond papers, printing papers - any mixture of these is nice.

Additional Supplies of Participants preference

Instructor Will Bring

Antique Sari Silk (assorted) to bind books

Additional vintage papers, tags, fabric, envelopes, tissue papers

Specialty paints/inks

Eco-dye supplies

Large darning needles

Leather to protect binding holes of covers

Please note that Robyn uses some expensive highly pigmented paints as well as some lower-priced ones for different Gelli printing techniques.

Paints Robyn likes are listed below. However, she does not expect you to purchase all of them. She usually uses a limited number of colors for a project to insure harmony. Therefore, Select the Colors that Fit the Palette You Like.
